

Position: Youth Worker

Part Time: 20 hours £10,400 per annum

Application Closing Date: 19 June 2017

Employer: Listening Ears Charity

Department: Rosebud Centre for Girls

Job Purpose

- To provide a safe and welcoming environment for young girls up to 19 years old.
- To empower young girls to build their confidence and resilience they need to achieve their aspirations
- To effectively deliver personal, social, emotional and educational development programmes that meet the girls' needs and enable them to overcome their fears, challenges and barriers
- To encourage them to build positive and healthy relationships through innovative programmes for the prevention of abuse within adolescent relationships
- To engage with the young women through one-to-one, mentoring and group activities while away from home
- To encourage them to build positive and healthy relationships by learning to embrace others regardless of their differences in culture, ethnicity and ability

Duties and Key Responsibilities

- To work directly with the Project Coordinator and other members of the team to ensure that the project objectives are met
- To contribute to the planning, delivery and implementation of all the activities of the project.
- To engage directly with the young girls and develop their personal, social, emotional and educational knowledge and skills
- To contribute fully in all aspects of project delivery
- To undertake all administration relating to own work, including initial assessment, monitoring and evaluation as well as report writing
- To gather and record information using the appropriate systems
- To adhere to safeguarding and child protection guidelines and report any concerns using the appropriate procedures
- To maintain a high level of professionalism while discharging responsibilities at all times
- To carry out any other duties as requested according to the needs of the project as a whole.